The Secretary shall not serve more than two (2) consecutive rotations as Secretary-Elect / Secretary / Past Secretary for a total service of 8 years.
e. The term of office for District Chairpersons shall begin January 1 of each year and shall be for one (1) year and not to exceed three (3) consecutive terms.

Section 4. Vacancies in Office
a. In the event of a vacancy in the office of President, President-elect shall become President to serve the unexpired term and shall serve the successive term as President.
b. In the event of a vacancy in the office of the President-elect, the Vice-President shall assume only the duties, but not the office. He shall perform these duties as well as his own until a special election can be held to fill the vacancy. The election shall be held within 60 days from the date on which the office was vacated. In the absence of a President-Elect and a vacancy in the office of President, the Vice President shall serve the remainder of the President’s term.
c. In the event of a vacancy in the office of the Treasurer, the Treasurer-Elect shall become Acting Treasurer, to serve the unexpired term, and shall also serve their successive term as Treasurer. In the event of a vacancy in the office of the Treasurer-Elect, the Board of Directors shall elect a qualified member to fill the vacancy until the next annual election. The annual election ballot will be adjusted to include a position for the remaining unexpired term of the two (2) year Treasurer-Elect position.
d. Any vacancy that occurs in any other office of the Board of Directors, the President, with the approval of the Board of Directors, shall appoint a person who meets the criteria to hold office as he or she sees fit to fulfill the duties until the next election. At the next election, an individual shall be elected to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term for that office. A vacancy in a District Chairperson shall be administered in accordance with Article XI Section 2 of these bylaws.

Section 5. Duties of Officers

a. President: He/She serves as a voting member of the Board of Directors and shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors. He/She shall prepare an agenda for all meetings; appoint standing and special committees subject to the approval of the Board of Directors; be an ex-officio member of all committees except the Elections and Nominations committees; and present to the Board of Directors and membership an annual report of the Society activities. The president shall be bonded and shall serve as a signatory on ASRC funds.

b. President-Elect: The President-elect shall automatically succeed the president when the term ends. He/She serves as a voting member of the Board of Directors and will perform such duties as shall be assigned by the President or the Board of Directors and also serve his/her term as an active member of the Program Committee.

c. Vice-President: He/She serves as a voting member of the Board of Directors and will be the liaison of the district chairpersons, which involves frequent communication, direction, and support for them. He/She will report communications and activities from the districts to the President monthly. In the event of a vacancy in the office of President-Elect, the Vice President shall assume the duties, but not the office of the President-elect, and shall also continue to serve as Vice President until the next scheduled election. The Vice President will assume the duties and responsibilities, but not the office of the President, if the Presidency should be vacated and the office of President-elect is unfilled.

d. Treasurer: The Treasurer shall be bonded and serve as a voting member of the Board of Directors. He/she shall have charge of all funds and securities of the Society; endorsing checks, notes, or other orders for payment of bills; disbursing funds as authorized by the Board of Directors and/or in accordance with the adopted budget; depositing funds as the Board of Directors may designate. He/She shall see that full and accurate accounts are kept and submit monthly trial balances to the Secretary within twenty (20) days after the monthly closing of the books; make a written quarterly financial report to the quarterly meetings of the Board of Directors.

e. Treasurer-Elect: The Treasurer-Elect shall be bonded. He/She shall be bonded. He/She shall chair the Budget/Audit Committee and assist the Treasurer in the performance of her/his duties. The Treasurer-Elect shall serve as a voting member of the Board in the Treasurer’s absence.

f. Past Treasurer: The Past Treasurer shall be bonded and shall serve on the Budget/Audit Committee and assist the Treasurer in the performance of her/his duties.

g. Secretary: The Secretary shall have charge of keeping the minutes of the Board of Directors regular business meetings and the annual business meeting, submitting a copy of the minutes of every meeting of the governing body and other business of the Society to the Executive Office of the AARC within thirty (30) days following the meeting; executing the general correspondence; affixing the corporate seal on documents so requiring, and in general, performing all duties as from time to time shall be assigned by the President or the Board of Directors.

h. Secretary-Elect: The Secretary-Elect is the successor to the office of Secretary when the Secretary’s term of office expires. He/She shall assist the Secretary in the fulfillment of his/her responsibilities, attend Board of Directors meetings as a non-voting member, and record minutes of Board of Directors meetings in the secretary’s absence. The Secretary-Elect shall serve as a voting member of the Board in the Secretary’s absence.

i. Past Secretary: The Past Secretary serves as the advisor to the Secretary and shall assist the Secretary as requested in the fulfillment of his/her responsibilities. He/she shall assist the Secretary-Elect in the transition into the office of the Secretary.

j. Past President: The Past President (ASRC President for the former year) serves as a voting member of the Board of Directors and serves in an advisory capacity to the Board of Directors.

k. Signatories: The following officers/members shall be bonded and serve as signatories for the Society funds: President, Past President, Treasurer, Past Treasurer, and Program Committee Chairperson.

ARTICLE VI – Nominations and Elections

Section 1. Nominations / Elections

a. The president shall appoint an impartial Nominations / Elections Committee, which shall arrange and conduct nominations and elections. The results of the election shall be made public at the annual business meeting.

b. This Committee shall consist of three (3) active members who shall serve for a term of one (1) year.

c. This Committee shall prepare for approval by the Board of Directors a slate of officers, district representatives, and delegates for the annual elections.

d. It shall be the duty of the Committee to make the final critical appraisal of candidates to see that the nominations are in the best interest of the AARC and the Society through a consideration of personal qualification and geographical representations as applicable.

Section 2. Nominations

a. Elections of officers shall be staggered to accommodate orderly succession of offices and provide for continuity of leadership. Biennially, the Nominating Committee shall place in nomination the names of at least one (1) person for the offices of President-elect, Vice-President, Secretary-Elect, Treasurer-Elect, and Delegate. Annually, the Nominating Committee shall place in nomination at least one person for the office of District Vice-Chairperson.

b. Only Active or Life Members in good standing shall be eligible for nomination.

c. District Representatives must be employed in the district in which they are nominated to serve.

d. The committee shall provide a pertinent biographical sketch of each nominee’s professional activities and services to the organization, all of which shall be a part of the ballot.

Section 3. Elections

a. At the direction of the Society’s Board of Directors, the vote shall be so designed as to be a secret ballot, either electronically or by mail, distributed to members in good standing at their last address of record with provisions for write-in votes of each office. The deadline date shall be clearly indicated on the ballot. Ballots, to be acceptable, must be received on or before the deadline.

b. Society elections shall be determined by a majority of votes cast. A tie vote shall be decided by lot.

c. Any Elections Committee member who accepts a nomination must resign from the Election Committee.
ARTICLE VII – Board of Directors

Section 1. Composition and Powers

a. The executive government of this Society shall be vested in a Board of ten (10) Active or Life Members consisting of the President, President-elect, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Immediate Past-President, and four (4) District Chairpersons. The Delegates shall be non-voting members of the Society Board of Directors.

b. The President shall be the Chairperson and presiding officer of the Board of Directors. He/She shall invite in writing such individuals to the meetings of the Board as he shall deem necessary, with the privilege of voice but not vote.

c. Upon refusal or neglect of any member of the Board to perform the duties of that office or for any conduct deemed prejudicial to the Society, the Board of Directors shall have the power to declare an office vacant by a two-thirds (2/3) vote. Written notices shall be given to the member within ten (10) days of such action that the office has been declared vacant.

Section 2. Duties

a. Supervise all business and activity of the Society within the limitations of these bylaws.

b. Adopt and rescind standing rules, policies, and procedures of the Society.

c. Determine remuneration, stipends, Annual Business Meeting fees for the following year, and other related matters, after consideration of the budget.

Section 3. Meetings

a. The Board of Directors shall hold the annual business meeting at the time of the annual educational seminar and shall not hold fewer than four (4) regular and separate meetings during the calendar year.

b. Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be called by the President at such times as the business of the Society shall require, or upon written request of three (3) members of the Board of Directors filed with the President and Secretary of the Society.

c. A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the board, providing that the president and/or vice-president is present.

d. The Board of Directors shall have the power to call an executive session. The executive session shall include only members of the Board of Directors and those individuals invited by the Board of Directors to attend. The executive session shall be held only in conjunction with regularly scheduled or specially scheduled meetings. The purpose of an executive session shall be to discuss a recommendation from the Judicial Legislative Committee, or sensitive subjects/actions that would better serve the state society to be carried out discretely. These subjects and actions shall include, but not be limited to: recommendations from the Judicial-Legislative Committee, declaring an office vacant, removal of any committee chairperson from duty, request from individual members to the Board of Directors of the ASRC of a personal nature, actions concerning a member of the Board of Directors at which time the Board member in question shall be asked to remove him/herself from the session.

The Board of Directors shall not record, for the minutes, any discussion held during the executive session. Board members present during the executive session shall not discuss with any individual the proceedings taking place during the executive session. Violation of this statement will result in action from the ASRC Judicial-Legislative Committee and may result in revocation of membership in the ASRC.
Section 4. Electronic Voting
a. Whenever, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, it is necessary to present any business to the membership prior to the next regular or annual business meeting, the Board of Directors may, unless otherwise required by these Bylaws, instruct the Elections Committee to conduct a vote of the membership by electronic means. Electronic means may include, but not be limited to, email, phone, computer, or online survey. The questions thus presented shall be determined according to a majority of the valid votes received, or a change in the Bylaws, when a two-thirds (2/3) majority of valid votes received is required. Any and all action approved by the members in accordance with the requirements of this Article shall be binding upon each member thereof.
b. Whenever, in the judgment of the President, it is necessary to present any business to the Board via electronic means, the President shall adhere to the following guidelines. The President shall contact every member and explain the consequences of the vote. The President shall obtain a yes or no to the question and record by name the response. An explanation of the question and the vote itself shall be recorded in the next regular Board of Directors meeting minutes.

Section 5. Multiple Offices
No officer or delegates shall hold District office simultaneously, and no Past President shall hold any elected office until his/her term has expired.

ARTICLE VIII – Annual Meeting
Section 1. Date and Place
a. The Society shall hold an annual business meeting during the annual educational seminar; additional meetings may be held as required to fulfill the objectives of the Society.
b. The date and place of the annual business meeting and additional meetings shall be decided in advance by the Board of Directors and must be within the boundaries of the state of Arkansas. In the event of a major emergency, the Board of Directors shall cancel the scheduled meeting, set a new date and place if feasible, or conduct the business or the meeting by mail or electronic notification, provided the material is sent in the same words to the voting membership.

Section 2. Purpose
The annual meeting shall be for the purpose of receiving reports of officers and committees, the results of the election, and for other business brought by the President.

Section 3. Notification
Written notice of the time and place of the annual business meeting shall be sent to all members of the Society not fewer than forty-five (45) days prior to the Meeting.
