

Cultural Diversity and Inclusion

The AARC professional community embraces diversity and multi-culturalism in all of its forms and promotes respect, cultural competence, and inclusion in every facet of its mission.

The AARC is enriched by the unique differences found among its diverse members, their patients/clients, and other stakeholders. The AARC values and embraces equal opportunity, and promotes the use of personal and cultural backgrounds to enhance our profession. The AARC accomplishes this by:

- Demonstrating sensitivity to all forms of diversity and multiculturalism including, but not limited to: age, gender and gender identity, race, color and ethnicity, nationality and national origin, ancestry, religious affiliation and creed, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, political affiliation, physical and mental abilities, veteran and active armed service status, job responsibilities and experience, education and training.
- Acknowledging the varied beliefs, attitudes, behaviors and customs of the people that constitute its communities of interest, thereby creating a diverse, multicultural, and inclusive professional environment.
- Promoting an appreciation for communication between, and understanding among, people with different beliefs and backgrounds.
- Accommodating the needs of the physically disabled at events and activities.
- Using multicultural content and gender-neutral references in documents and publications.
- Promoting diversity and inclusion through education and cultural competence in its education programs.
- Actively recruiting candidates from under-represented groups for leadership and mentoring programs.
